A LUXURY COLLECTION HOTEL

Moscow

OVERLOOKING THE KREMLIN
AT THE CROSSROADS OF RUSSIA'S HISTORY
SINCE 1903

WELCOME TO HOTEL NATIONAL, A LUXURY COLLECTION HOTEL, MOSCOW

Built in 1903, Hotel National has been an awe-inspiring historic landmark for more than a century. Located at the very heart of Moscow's historical, cultural and business center, the magnificent hotel opens spectacular vistas of the Kremlin and the Red Square.

Hotel National is a part of The Luxury Collection by Starwood, a glittering ensemble of more than 70 of the world's finest hotels and resorts in more than 30 countries around the globe. The historical grandeur and understated elegance of the property, together with the The Luxury Collection's signature services and state-of-the-art technology, makes Hotel National a favorite destination for sophisticated global explorers visiting Moscow.

LOCATION

Hotel National is located in the immediate vicinity of Moscow's major historical venues: the Red Square and the Kremlin, St. Basil's Cathedral and The Pushkin Museum of Fine Arts, Bolshoi Theater and Cathedral of Christ the Savior, and the major shopping centers, such as TSUM and GUM.

SEEPED IN HISTORY

The National was built by famed Russian architect Alexander Ivanov, a member of The Emperor Academy of Arts, and welcomed its first guests in 1903. Before the Revolution, the hotel accommodated foreign diplomats, politicians, royalties, business tycoons and famous performers. The hotel's restoration in the 1930s marked yet another milestone in achieving even greater grandeur. Artifacts from Russian Tsar palaces and aristocrats' estates were added, and the hotel was decorated with museum-quality furniture, exceptional paintings and exclusive art objects. To this day, visitors can still marvel at the majority of these precious antiques forming part of the National's interior.

ROOMS & SUITES

Each of the 206 luxuriously appointed guest rooms feature genuine exclusive furniture inspired by the hotel's nineteenth-century décor, spacious bathing and dressing areas as well as state-of-the-art technology including LCD TV and DVD players. Moreover, the hotel's 56 historical suites are adorned with authentic and rare Russian antiques, including vases, lamps, mirrors, statues and paintings. Many of the hotel's guest rooms boast exceptional city views including panoramas of the Kremlin.
